

The Wine Library Associates of Sonoma County Present

Arturo Robledo: A Fiesta Honoring His History

A Latino Perspective on the Wine Industry

- The Sonoma County Wine Library Annual Meeting will premiere Arturo Robledo's Oral History, the first Oral History to feature a Latino member of the industry.
- Arturo Robledo has worked his way from laborer to supervisor, to vineyard manager and now, a successful business owner. His family is renowned for field budding.
- Author, Journalist and Editor Vivienne Sosnowski has been Arturo's interviewer for the oral history, and will present and interview Arturo and his family.
- Multimedia presentation supplements the live interview with the Robledos
- Wines from Sonoma Cutrer, Emeritus, Porter Creek, Radio Coteau, Merry Edwards, Scherrer, La Crema, Murphy Goode, DeLoach, Dry Creek, , and other wineries and vineyards where Arturo has tended the vines, and there will be hors d'oeuvres by Park Lane Catering. Silent Auction of selected wines.
